We light a candle in the name of the Maker,
Who lit the world and breathed the breath of life for us...
We light a candle in the name of the Son,
Who saved the world and stretched out his hand to us...
We light a candle in the name of the Spirit
Who encompasses the world and blesses our souls with yearning ...

We light three lights for the trinity of love:
God above us, God beside us, God beneath us:
The beginning, the end, the everlasting one.

“Are you for us or for our enemies?”

“Neither,” he replied, “but as commander of the army of the Lord I have now come.”

Then Joshua fell face-down to the ground in reverence.

For He Himself is our [Peace] who has made the two one and has destroyed the barrier, The dividing wall of hostility.

Ephesians 2:14
Blessed are the peacemakers! Yet where is Christ in ongoing global conflict? How might his church wisely serve as agents of reconciliation, healing rather than exacerbating historical wounds?

Pt. A | Voices of Palestinian Christians
Question: What didn’t make sense?

Challenge: What did you think was wrong?

Implication: What difference does this make for peace-making in a polarised world?

Application: How do we live as a be-attitude community, brokering shalom?

How do we live as a be-attitude community, brokering shalom?
... rich and repetitive actions we do, over time and often together, which engage our senses and imagination, reminding us of God’s presence and aiming us at His Kingdom
Doxology.
(Old Hundred. L. M.)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise him, all creatures here below;

Praise him above, ye heav'nly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
